@Ricardo - Unfortunately not. Marking an answer as the answer is given solely to the person who asked the question, and the powers that be have no intention of changing that. As far as they're concerned, for the sake of others coming across the question, that's what the voting system is for (with the top-voted answer being the "community choice" one, basically).

2,000 Years of Catholic Ethics by Rob Esdaille. At its core, Catholic Social Teaching is simply the attempt to spell out the ethical consequences of the confession, "Jesus is Lord," for the way in which we live. It is important to note that it is faith which is the starting-point for this reflection, not simply concern about particular issues facing society.
