Greek Mythology Matching Answer Key

Mentorship is a relationship in which a more experienced or more knowledgeable person helps to guide a less experienced or less knowledgeable person. The mentor may be older or younger than the person being mentored, but he or she must have a certain area of expertise. It is a learning and development partnership between someone with vast experience and someone who wants to learn.

The fifth Platonic Solid, the dodecahedron, Plato obscurely remarks, "...the god used for arranging the constellations on the whole heaven" (Timaeus 55). That remark led the great astronomer Johannes Kepler (1571-1630) into an absurd series of speculations about how the orbits of the planets, whose nature for the first time he had accurately understood, corresponded to the Platonic solids.

By convention, the chessboard must be oriented so that the closest corner to the right of either player is a light square (light rhymes with right). This was first specified in print by Pedro Damiano (1480-1544) in 1512. The practice of shading dark squares in printed chess diagrams was introduced by the scientist Girolamo Cardano (1501-1576).
