One way to prevent yourself from suffering is to just become rich yourself. Surely, relying on the rich to “trickle down” the wealth they attain from tax breaks may work for some time; however, to think that just because the top pay fewer taxes means that everybody will get wage increases does not make much sense (why pay people more to do the exact same job?).

Simple living encompasses a number of different voluntary practices to simplify one's lifestyle. These may include, for example, reducing one's possessions, generally referred to as minimalism, or increasing self-sufficiency. Simple living may be characterized by individuals being satisfied with what they have rather than want. Although asceticism generally promotes living simply and refraining ...
